Welcome to tonight's visitors Burnley, our neighbours from just up the road.

We are getting to the stage now, in the second half of the season, where every game is so very important.

Tonight's is important to us as we aim to continue on our way at the top while Burnley are desperately striving to pull away from the foot of the table.

Local derby encounters are sometimes unpredictable affairs, but I was pleased with our display at Blackpool on Tuesday. The 2-0 win there was an excellent example of our players' pulling through in difficult circumstances.

The pictures in this programme have been selected by Bolton Evening News photographers Derek Ralphs, Mike Grimes and Martin Birchall.

And I must pay tribute to the supporters who followed us to the sea-side. The support they gave us played a big part in lifting the players at vital times — it was more like being at home than away.

These programme notes were written before our visit to Millwall on Saturday, but we were looking for a result there.

It is a remarkable statistic that prior to that game we had only lost three times in the league this season and those defeats all came in London.

But we have no intention of looking back. This is our first game of 1978 tonight and our plan is to forget the first half of the season, put our heads down, and start from scratch again.

In conclusion, I would like to wish all our supporters, on behalf of everyone here at Burnden, a happy and prosperous New Year.

Ian Greaves

IAN BRENNAN. Joined the Turf Moor staff from junior football in Derbyshire. He started his professional career as a forward, but switched to left-back in the reserve team and gradually worked his way into the senior side.

PAUL FLETCHER. Signed from Bolton Wanderers, his home town club, for a substantial fee in 1971. A great battler for Burnley, he has been unlucky with injuries in the last couple of seasons. A hard working centre-forward who can be very good in the air.

BILLY INGHAM. Comes from Stakeford, Northumberland, and joined the Clarets from junior football. A fine club man, he can play in virtually any position, including striker or full-back but most of his League games have been in midfield.

TONY MORLEY. England Under-23 international winger, Tony is a Lancashire lad from Ormskirk. He was the most expensive signing in Burnley's history when transferred from nearby Preston North End in February, 1976. He showed some of his top form in the second half of last season.

KEITH NEWTON. Veteran full-back Keith, holder of 28 full England international caps, has had a wonderful career with Blackburn Rovers, Everton and Burnley. The oldest member of the team, he had another very good season in 1976-77. A calm, cultured defender who can play equally well on either flank.

PETER NOBLE. Sunderland-born Peter, who was formerly with Newcastle United and Swindon Town, was appointed club captain last season and was undoubtedly the inspiration behind the escape from relegation. Peter made his name with Swindon, playing for them in the 1969 League Cup final in which they defeated Arsenal at Wembley. Burnley signed him in 1973.

BILLY RODAWAY. Powerfully-built Billy is a native of Liverpool, and was an outstanding player at schoolboy level for his city team, for Lancashire and also England. He has played in midfield, but his best position is at the heart of defence, where he was often outstanding last season.

ALAN STEVENSON. Alan comes from Staveley and proved himself a talented goalkeeper with Chesterfield before a big-money transfer to Burnley in 1972. An England Under-23 international, he has had many outstanding matches for the Clarets and he can make brilliant reflex saves.

JIM THOMSON. Jim is a native of Glasgow and he was a Chelsea player for a couple of seasons. He made 40 First Division appearances for Chelsea including one at Turf Moor against Burnley in which he scored a goal. Soon afterwards he was transferred to the Clarets for a large fee. He has made about 200 senior appearances for Burnley.

STEVE KINDON. Born in Warrington, Steve started his career with Burnley, leaving after 102 League appearances to join Wolves for a fee around £100,000. Recently, after making 105 League appearances for Wolves and scoring 27 goals, the fast-raiding winger returned to Turf Moor.

BRIAN HALL. Glasgow-born Brian made his name with Liverpool for whom he made 140 first team appearances. He was then transferred to Plymouth Argyle from where he moved back north recently to join Burnley. A tenacious midfielder player, Brian has an eye for goal.

PETER ROBINSON. Another tall and powerful youngster, teenager Peter was spotted by Turf Moor scouts in junior football in the north-east of England. There is football in the family and his uncle was a professional with Hull City.

MALCOLM SMITH. Malcolm comes from Stockton and began his professional career with Middlesbrough, for whom he made more than 50 League appearances as a central striker. He couldn't quite clinch a regular first team place at Ayresome Park, and he had spells on loan with Blackpool and Bury before joining Burnley on loan early last season.

DEREK SCOTT. Derek comes from Gateshead and is a former England Schools international. A very strong young player, he has made most of his League appearances at right-back but he can also play in midfield.

Today's Visitors

We had all hoped that Burnley's experience of last season — when they avoided the drop into Division Three, for what would have been the first time, by only two points — would prove to have been something of a freak, coming only 12 months after losing their First Division place.

Alas, they have been faring even worse this season and, after spending almost the entire first half of the campaign holding up the other 21 clubs, the prospects of a spell of Third Division football are looking very real indeed at the moment.

Manager Harry Potts has had many problems. He would have liked to have kept that fine Welsh international midfielder player Bryan Flynn but the player wanted First Division football and his £175,000 transfer to Leeds was really inevitable.

Mr. Potts used £25,000 of that money to purchase Brian Hall from Plymouth as Flynn's replacement. Hall spent several years in the First Division with Liverpool and was a member of their 1974 F.A. Cup winning team.

Mr. Potts also spent £80,000 in bringing striker Steve Kindon back to the club where he started his career. Steve left for Wolves for £100,000 in 1972 and soon got back to his consistent scoring form after returning to Turf Moor a few weeks ago.

Kindon usually partners former Bolton striker Paul Fletcher in attack in a 4-4-2 formation.

Willie Ingham, Peter Noble and Tony Morley have been partnering Hall in midfield while the back four has been comprising Keith Newton, the former England player, Jim Thompson, Bill Rodaway and Ian Brennan.

Derek Scott, Peter Robinson and Terry Pashley have also played in defence.

Alan Stevenson continues to excel in goal.

In spite of their lack of success in the League, Burnley achieved some good results in the League Cup.

They defeated Chester 2—1 on aggregate in the first round and then beat First Division Norwich 3—1 at Turf Moor in the next round. They were eventually knocked out by Ipswich Town (2—1) in a closely fought game at Turf Moor.

Burnley were one of the original 12 Football League clubs in 1888 and they have spent their entire life in the top two divisions. They won the League Championship twice (in 1921 and 1960) and the F.A. Cup once (1914). They were runners-up in the 1947 and 1962 finals.

The early post-war years were highly successful for Burnley. After gaining First Division status in 1947 they enjoyed an unbroken run of 24 years at the top. Relegation came in 1971 but they were back within two years, remaining until 1976.

It seemed highly probable that Burnley would sink into the Third Division for the first time in their history following a run of 16 games without a win last season. By February they were second from bottom, with apparently little hope of recovery.

They were still in danger until two matches from the end when the failure of Carlisle and Plymouth enabled them to keep clear of relegation.

Burnley failed to win many of their opening nine League matches this season and, during that disastrous run, they collected a mere two points! It was fortunate for them that both Notts. County and Bristol Rovers were also struggling otherwise they might have been completely stranded at the foot of the table.

After registering their first win, over Bristol Rovers at Turf Moor, Burnley began collecting a few points but scarcely enough to give the fans hope that they can climb out of relegation trouble. They have been merely keeping pace with those ahead of them.

The holiday games were critical for the club — some good results could lift the team for the long fight ahead. On the other hand, further defeats could have a serious effect upon morale.

How to get there...

Fans travelling by road to the Wanderers' FA Cup third round tie at Spurs should take the following route issued by the RAC.

Take A666(M) / M61 / M62 (follow Liverpool and M6 south signs) to intersection 22 M6 at Croft (16 miles).

M6 south then via M6 / M1 Midlands link and M1 south to intersection 2 Fiveways Corner, Hendon, North London. Junction A1 / A41 (210 miles).

A1 (follow A1 City signs) to A406 North Circular Road (211 miles). A406 for seven miles to A1010 junction at Edmonton (218 miles). A1010 right to Tottenham (219 miles).

For the game at Sheffield United (see map) the RAC recommend A666 / M61 / M62 / M63 to Cheadle junction A560. Fork right in half a mile at Farmers Arms traffic lights to Stockport junction A6.

A6 via Disley and Whaley Bridge to Chapel-en-le-Frith junction A625 (35 miles). A625 via Mam Tor, Castleton Hope and Hathersage to Sheffield (53 miles). Follow A625 Eccleshall Road into Sheffield with United's ground, Bramall Lane on the right at St Mary's roundabout.

Meet the Referee...

JOHN HUNTING (Leicester). Started refereeing with the Royal Signals in Egypt and Cyprus then via the Leicestershire Senior League and Football Combination to the Football League full list which he has been on since 1968.
